IN THE SWIM

The season's best bathing suits from $24 to $306

BY MEG GOLDMAN

Okay, not all of us are built like Gisele. In fact, few women look as great in a bikini as the Brazilian supermodel. But thanks to the latest swimwear technology (the slimming Miracle Suit is an example), ingenious cuts (try a bustier bikini) and pretty patterns (polka dots and stripes are big this season), lots of ladies cut a fine figure on the beach.

We scoured the city for the latest one-pieces, tankinis and bikinis, then asked three readers to choose their favorite suits. It wasn't easy: Kathleen, Gabrielle and Michelle each tried on at least five suits and liked several. To see their final selections — and our top 17 suits — turn the page.
